A Woman's Visit to Billingsgate.

Nobody was ready to go with me the morning I wanted to see the Tower, so I put on my hat and sallied forth alone. It occurred to me that it would be pleasant to go by one of the little steamers on the Thames. My guide-book assured me that if I got off at London bridge a few minutes walk would bring me to the historical pile which I sought. I got off at London bridge, and plunged off into the narrow streets at my right. On and on I went. Fish stalls grew more and more plentiful. Dirty babies tumbled about on the sidewalks. Rough-looking men quarrelling over their carts swore frightfully at one another. My only comfort was that policemen were numerous. I asked one

THE WAY TO THE TOWER.

"Straight ahead, Miss, just through Billingsgate," said he,

"Billingsgate!" My heart rejoiced that I had stumbled upon that historic and histrionic locality. I thought of Ben Jonson calling a fishwife a verb and a preposition, and thereby exciting her proverbial ire. Was I really to see a Billingsgate fishwife! O, joy, O, rapture unforseen! The policeman interrupted my mental rhapsody. "I think I'll walk through with you, Miss. You seem to be a foreigner, and it might be better for me to go with you."

"Thank you," said I, and that minion of the law showed me Billingsgate. I went into the great market-place, slimy with spilled fish, where I should not have dared to go alone. The men stopped swearing and let us pass through to peep down a great window upon the Thames. It was low tide. The fishing-boats which had come up from the sea lay high and dry upon the sand. Men were cleaning fish down below; men were selling them here. Everywhere men—not a woman was to be seen, not a single fishwife. I looked earnestly for one, but saw none.

LOOKING FOR FISHWIVES.

Presently I pulled my companion's sleeve. "Is that one?" I asked, excitedly.

"What? Where?"

"There. Is that a fishwife!" pointing to the first woman I had seen. She had a basket on her arm.

The policeman looked at me with curiosity. "A fishwife!" said he interrogatively.

"Yes, I have always read of the women who sell fish here. I want to see one of them."

"O, they did a good many years ago. But that was before my time. It isn't often one sees a woman in Billingsgate nowadays. Third turning to the left, then up the hill, and you'll see the Tower. You can't miss it. Good morning, mem. Thank you kindly."

The next minute I wished I had my shilling back again. Why should I have paid that policeman for scattering one of the idols of my childhood! The Billingsgate fishwife existeth not to-day' and I am sad and disappointed.—London Correspondence Chicago Inter Ocean.

FLARHARITY'S ENGINE.

Flying a Mile a Minute to Destruction--Miraculous Escape.

John Flarharity, an engineer, on a Denver and Rio Grande engine, the Denver Tribune says, was running a "pusher" in the yards at Leadville. He was ordered to go down the road and meet the incoming passenger train at Eiler's. As he started out of the yards the strap connected with the lever broke, and he lost all control of the engine. The engine was a new one, and in good condition, and he says he never can explain just how or why it happened. Running at a tremendous speed down grade he expected every moment to be dashed to instant death.

"It was an awful moment," said Flarharity, "when I found the engine would not respond to the touch of the lever, and that she was beyond my control. The cylinder heads blew out, the steam blinded me, and everything seemed to conspire to hurl us to destruction."

"How heavy was the grade?"

"One hundred and eighty-five feet to the mile. Down the steep incline the engine dashed. I tugged at the lever and brakes, but it was as if I had been tugging at the solid parts of the engine itself. Then suddenly I remembered that I was to meet the passenger train at Eiler's. My fireman jumped off early in the race, and I was left alone, thinking I had left him dead on the track. We were making more than a mile a minute. Little pieces of sand and dirt flew against my face and stung like fire. In the distance I could see the approaching passenger train. I yelled and screamed, for I knew my only hope was to flag that train and get her on the side track. I saw the operator, Woodward, running for the train as he saw me coming, enveloped in a cloud of smoke and steam and dust. With one last effort I opened wide the throttle, hoping that the engine would throw herself from the track on the curve and save the train from destruction. Then I jumped and unconsciousness overcame me. When I recovered I saw the engine lying on her side within forty feet of the passenger train, and people were crowding around me and bathing my head, and hoping I was not killed."

Flarharity escaped miraculously with only a few slight bruises. The accident was one of the strangest on record, and in it not a single person was seriously hurt.

About fifty natives of the Dominion of Canada met in a parlour in the Knickerbocker Cottage, New York, on one evening lately, and discussed the foundation for a Canadian social club. They surrounded several round tables, and discussed the matter over numerous bottles of champagne. Mr. J. Macnab Clark presided, and Mr. L. S. Thompson acted as temporary Secretary. "Fifteen years ago this month," said the Chairman, "about 150 Canadians met in the Stephens House, on Broadway, for a similar purpose, but the affair was not properly managed, and fell through." He expressed the hope that a similar fatality would not befall the club this time. There is more ground, he thought, for hoping for its success than there was fifteen years ago, because there are now between 4,000 and 5,000 Canadians residing in the city. A committee, consisting of Messrs. James W. Britt, Robert Reinhardt, Henry O. Lyman, F. Dezouth, and E. R. Valkel was appointed to prepare a constitution and bylaws, and Messrs Lyman, W. H. Welford, and John Norris were appointed a committee to secure a hall for the next meeting on Saturday night, when it is expected that not less than 500 Canadians will be present. Final arrangements will be made at that meeting for a dinner on Dominion Day, on the evening of Saturday, July 1.

For all purposes of a family medicine Hagyard's Yellow Oil will be found invaluable. Immediate relief will follow its use. It relieves pain, cures chilblains, frostbites, scalds, burns, corns, rheumatism, neuralgia, &c. For internal use it is none the less wonderful. One or two doses frequently cure sore throat. It will cure croup in a few minutes. A few bottles has often cured asthma. Colic has been cured in fifteen minutes by a teaspoonful dose. It cures with the utmost rapidity. It is really a wonderful medicine. 28.

Burdock Blood Bitters is not a Whiskey Stimulant or fancy drink to pander to the depraved appetite of the intemperate, but a pure vegetable life-giving Tonic and regulator of the secretions. It acts promptly on the Bowels, the Liver, the Blood and the Kidneys, purifying and giving tone to the entire system. Try a Sample Bottle which Costs only 10 Cents, Large Bottles $1. 27

Neither the Syndicate, the Scott Act, nor the Irish question causes half the sensational comment that is caused by the popularity of Burdock Blood Bitters. This great remedy is marvellous in its success in curing Chronic disease when other medicines have failed. It is the best Blood Purifying Tonic and Liver Invigorator known. A specific for all diseases of Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Sample Bottles 10 Cents.

A sure cure for dyspepsia. The Oregon Blood Purifier. Use before meals as directed.

Acid Stomach, Headache, Heartburn, and Indigestion are quickly cured by using Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Bathing the head freely in Pain-Killer will usually relieve the most severe attacks of Headache. 1

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA DISTRICT.

Gentlemen:—As I am a candidate for your votes and interest at the forthcoming election of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly, it becomes my duty briefly to state the principles I hold.

In the first place, I am opposed to the present government; but as it is a mere makeshift, a new administration will have to be formed holding opinions consonant with those of the majority of the representatives of the electors.

I am of opinion that the permanent and progressive prosperity of the Province depends chiefly upon the increase of a settled white population and increased agricultural and other industrial productions, and in utilizing the mineral and other resources. It would be advantageous also to cultivate our bays, seas and inlets by the introduction of new varieties of fish, both crustacean and other, and benefit would also be derived were new kinds of timber trees introduced.

Whilst advocating measures to promote increased production I should also protest against the wanton destruction of our forests. Trees which have taken centuries to grow are burned and destroyed as though they were valueless. Means ought to be taken to prevent this loss except where necessary in clearing lands and utilizing the lumber.

Being a resident of the district I should of course do my best to urge the keeping of the roads and bridges in good repair and the construction of new ones where necessary.

The way to mitigate our condition is to encourage productive home industries. Now is the time actively to promote and foster these.

It will be advantageous to urge upon those who have lands locked up the necessity of settling them or throwing them open to settlement.

The Chinese evil is one that must be grappled with by the federal government at the instance of your federal and local representatives. I should like to see the Chinese supplanted by men of our own race, kindred and language as soon as possible. Any further importation of Chinamen is neither desired nor desirable. It is to be hoped that our members at Ottawa and our local government will succeed in making the federal government see and understand the magnitude of the evil and induce them to pass remedial measures, and at the same time find means of sending immigrants to displace those now here.

As a matter of course I am in favor of the construction of the Vancouver Island railway; but the insane action of the local government in breaking the contract relating thereto without consulting the Canadian and British governments, also parties to the contract, has at least jeopardized its construction. Previous to this mad action the Province could demand as a right what it will now have to solicit as a favor. The local government should not have undertaken a work promised and intended to be performed by the federal government. How far the question of compensation may have been endangered remains yet to be learned.

The dry dock being not a local but a national work should not have been undertaken by the local government, and had they had a correct judgment of their own capacity they would never have meddled with it. As it is they have shown to the Province and to the world at large their gross incapacity and criminal negligence. The dock must be built, but its affairs are so muddled that it is impossible at present to see clearly its condition and prospects. If it be possible to turn the dock over to the Canadian government, and if they will at the same time agree to finish it without saddling the Province with additional debt, then let them by all means have it.

With these and other enormous difficulties glaring at us it is essentially expedient and advisable that the local government should be in harmony with the federal government, amicability being the best and probably an allowable way of producing some order out of the chaos so wilfully caused by the late Walkem government. There must be no more sham questions to manufacture to direct people's attention abroad in order to blind them to and distract them from most important local matters with which they are most concerned and which have been so direfully mismanaged.

If you honor me by making me one of your representatives I will do my best to serve your interests and those of the Province at large, and will support any new ministry whose policy shall be the amicable settlement of existing difficulties, the promotion of provincial industries and measures calculated to remove or remedy the great existing evils and give our district at least her due. Measures, not men. At the same time considerable latitude and forbearance will have to be given to and exercised by such an administration, for they have a most difficult and importa nt work before them. G. A. McTAVISH.

North Saanich, July 5, 1882. jy6-dw

To the Electors of the City of Victoria.

Gentlemen: The generous support you have always accorded me induced me to accept the leadership of the Government, rendered vacant by the resignation of Mr. Walkem, and in soliciting your suffrages, at the approaching election I feel confident that I shall receive every assistance in the discharge of the new duties devolving upon me from all well-wishers of the Province.

I am gratified to be able to state that the financial position of the Province has never been more satisfactory. Instead of a large deficit, debentures matured and unpaid, heavy bank overdraft, salaried officers, merchants and mechanics unpaid all over the Province, as was the case four years ago, with the certain prospect of increased taxation, had the party in power under the Elliott Administration retained office, the Walkem Government can show for their term just expired reduction in taxation, reduction in the public debt, a surplus revenue, and large sums expended out of revenue for Education, Public Works and other services of practical utility, the credit of the Province has never stood higher; and instead of three-quarters of a million dollars of provincial bonds being disposed of at a considerable discount, as in 1877, not one bond has been issued below par.

The immense influx of Chinese into the Province calls for united action on our part. Constant and repeated efforts have been made by the Provincial Government and Legislature to prevail upon the Dominion to take such action as will remedy this great evil, and it is gratifying to observe that the Government at Ottawa now realize the importance of moving in this matter.

It is important that every effort should be put forth to induce members of our own and kindred races to make their homes in this Province.

The Legislative Assembly, at its last session passed a bill to enable the Vancouver Land and Railway Co. to construct a railway from Esquimalt to Seymour Narrows. The projectors deposited $10,000 as a guarantee that bonds amounting to $250,000 would be placed in the hands of the Government as security for the construction of the railway. The company not having complied with the provisions of the Bill the Island Railway question is again brought into its former position. The land reserve remains as intact as when made in 1873, and it devolves upon the Government once more to take action on this important subject.

In consequence of the contractors not making satisfactory progress with the construction of the Graving Dock, it became necessary to take the preliminary steps to enable the Government to proceed with the work. Every effort will be made to finish the Dock as early as possible.

As I hold that under the ballot system it is the duty of a candidate to meet the electors upon a public platform in order to explain his views, I shall take an early opportunity to do so, in the meantime assuring you that, if elected, I shall always advocate the rights of the Province generally, and that the interests of this city will be my first care.

I have the honor to remain, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
ROBERT BEAVEN,

BRICKS. BRICKS.

COUGHLAN & MASON

Wish to inform the public that the advertisement of M. Humber to the effect that he carries the only bricks MOULDED BY A WHITE MAN has a tendency to mislead. The fact is that the moulder is the ONLY white man employed at M. Humber's Yard, all the rest of the employees being Chinese.

At our yard more than five hundred per cent. is expended on white labor than at Humber's.

We expect to be able to supply Bricks at a REASONABLE FIGURE.

je20 COUGHLAN & MASON.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA CITY.

Gentlemen:—As one of the four gentlemen selected by the convention I beg to solicit the honor of your suffrages and I do so in the firm conviction that any change is preferable to a continuance of the deplorable incapacity of the existing government. Since they have held the reins of power our relations with the Dominion have been strained and instead of a cordial co-operation for our mutual benefit there has been a half-concealed distrust of a friendly government.

Much of the legislation for the past few years has been of a retrogressive character and many acts have been disallowed as trenching on the authority of the Dominion Parliament.

The enforcement of the collection of Provincial taxes has been unduly harsh and oppressive.

The removal of the Vancouver Island lands from the railway belt after having been locked up for so many years has rendered the construction of the Victoria and Nanaimo Railway as a portion of the Canada Pacific line very doubtful.

The blundering over the drydock and the arbitrary refusal of even allowing the claims of Messrs. Reid Brothers and their numerous creditors to be considered are subjects which vitally effect the credit of the Province and must inevitably delay the construction of necessary public works until the liabilities thus incurred are met.

I shall advocate the entire exclusion of Chinese and any measures which will have the effect of restricting their presence in this province will meet my support.

I shall forward the construction of the Island Railway in the mode best calculated to advance the interests of the Province, and strive to lessen the friction between the Dominion and the Province; and if I am honored with your confidence I shall give in support to any government which in my opinion will conduct the public business on sound principles and with honesty and integrity.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

THE OPPOSITION BOOM.

The first gun has been fired from the Royal City, and its "boom" reverberates throughout Mainland and Island, conveying the sweet promise of success to the ears of the Opposition hosts and striking dismay to the hearts of the corrupt and dying government. "Armstrong, Oppositionist, returned by acclamation." Such was the brief but expressive legend that flashed over the wires yesterday. In spite of extraordinary efforts on the part of the government to bring out a candidate; in spite of the efforts of the resurrected Ebenezer, his pocketbook and "You know what I mean," the conspiracy failed. The government has no supporters in New Westminster, city or country. Brown withdrew his name when he found that the cause was hopeless, and Armstrong has had a walk over. That will do. It is glory enough for one day, and a happy augury of what is in store for the constituencies on the 24th. The government has no supporters in New Westminster. There is a universal sentiment of hostility to the makeshift ministry. No independents or government men need apply there. The district is sound to the core on all the leading questions, and the prevailing sentiment is that "The government must go."

MR. WILSON'S ADDRESS.

One of the most scholarly and eloquent addresses of the present canvass is that of Mr. WM. WILSON, which appears in these columns. Mr. WILSON touches upon a variety of subjects that possess vast interest to the electors. The Esquimalt graving dock, the Island railway, Chinese immigration, defective legislation and the finances come in for a share of attention. His remarks under all these heads are extremely lucid; but in no particular is he more pronounced than when he refers to the "slovenly legislation" of the government." Acts have been "hurriedly framed" and "fatal defects" have, in consequence, crept into them. Just now certain interested parties are trying to raise a hue and cry against the presence of "so many lawyers" in the house. We would ask them to peruse Mr. WILSON'S address on the subject of defective legislation. To insure the passage of laws that will run the gauntlet of the courts here and meet with the approval of legal minds at Ottawa more than one lawyer member is necessary in the house. Just now workingmen are clamoring (and rightly, too,) for the passage of an anti-Chinese law. The last measure failed because of its inherent unconstitutionality. If workingmen are wise they will provide against another failure by increasing the legal strength of the members. As chairman of the finance committee Mr. WILSON denies that the finances are in "a satisfactory condition." Unfortunately "dock mismanagement and extraordinary cement requirement threaten to add to provincial indebtedness a much larger sum than has been paid off in four years, the result being that the financial aspect of affairs at present is more discouraging than it ever was before." The deplorable state of the country resulting from the want of practical minds in the government is next touched upon. On this point Mr. WILSON says:

"Whilst during the last ten years Oregon has added 85,000 to her population, and even little Washington Territory 50,000, the population of big British Columbia has remained almost stationary. The government have kept the country in the background. People on the search for new homes know nothing and could learn nothing about British Columbia. To-day a map of the province cannot be obtained here, in San Francisco or elsewhere "for love or money." We should not allow this state of darkness to continue. It is for you to see that your lands are thrown open to settlement, that information concerning them is disseminated by your government, so that a white population similar to that settling in the States and Territories adjoining you is attracted to your shores."

This review is necessarily cursory. We advise our readers to peruse the address for themselves. It will repay them.

THE DRYDOCK AND THE OPPOSITION.

Our esteemed morning contemporary would not wilfully misrepresent the Opposition. His record for fair-minded criticism, gentlemanly consideration and wholesome, temperate argument is so well established that we read with pain in his columns yesterday an attack upon the Opposition policy so far as concerns the drydock. Our contemporary has been led into error. The Opposition entertain only the most patriotic intentions towards the dock. All parties and sections wish to see it completed; but not at a crushing loss to the country. In accordance with the bargain made by the WALKEM government with the Dominion govern ment the latter are now entitled to take possession of the works and complete them at provincial expense. That was a foolish bargain and taxpayers may well stand aghast at the dismal prospect. In effect, the government subsidies are mortgaged to pay for the drydock, which the government promised "should not cost the country a cent." It has already cost the province nearly $200,000 and will cost it at least another $250,000 to pay for the extra cement required. Now, the policy of the Opposition is to ask the Imperial and Dominion governments to recoup the province for its loss, and take the dock off its hands and complete it as a national, not as a provincial, work. That is the only feasible plain; and it is the only one the people should endorse at the polls. The bad bargain with Canada should be broken.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF VICTORIA.

GENTLEMEN:—AS I AM A CANdidate for Victoria City at the approaching Provincial election I beg to solicit your votes and influence and a renewal of the confidence with which for the past four years you have honored me. In doing so I express the hope that my conduct as one of your representatives has been such as to meet with your approval and that you recognize that my efforts have been steadily directed to the welfare of Victoria and British Columbia.

All measures introduced in the Legislature calculated to advance your interests and the prosperity of this Province have received my hearty support. Among those of a local nature which have secured important advantages to you, I mention the abolition of Provincial taxation on real estate in Municipalities, the appointment of Police Magistrate and control of the police by the Mayor and Council, the retention of the whole of the liquor licenses by the city, the enlargement of Beacon Hill Park by the addition of considerable land and an extensive water front, the transfer of the Park and the Cemetry to the Corporation and an appropriation for a new school building now in course of construction. These beneficial measures had the united support of your members.

In the management of the most important provincial matters it is to be regretted that the government have not shown that amount of capacity which the people have a right to expect from those entrusted with the control of public affairs.

It was confidently expected that as soon as the Walkem government took office that the two great works which most directly concern you, the Esquimalt graving dock and the Island railway, would be energetically dealt with and that by the time the former would be completed and the latter under construction. Your reasonable expectations have not been realized; comparatively little has been done upon the dock and work upon it has been suspended. The island railway is not yet commenced and the position of this question is such that it is a matter of grave uncertainty when it will be.

If a government should be judged by its acts, then testing the present one by what it has accomplished in four years it must be acknowledged that its success has not been such as to inspire or justify confidence.

THE ESQUIMALT GRAVING DOCK.

Owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the dock and the rumors as to the extraordinary quantity of cement required for it I deemed it my duty to call for a committee of inquiry to examine into everything connected with it. The investigations of the committee disclosed a state of things worse than expected. To recapitulate here the serious mistakes made or the evidence of business mismanagement would require an address far beyond ordinary limits. I shall therefore take a more fitting opportunity to place you in possession of all the facts and to explain to you the course I took in dealing with the dock, which I believe was in you interest and in that of the Province. The dock ought to have been built before this, and must be pushed to completion as speedily as possible.

THE ISLAND RAILWAY.

The obligation of the Dominion to construct this railway is undoubted. It is a just cause of dissatisfaction that the Dominion government have not yet placed this short but important line of railway under construction as agreed upon. I am strongly of opinion that if Mr. Walkem when in Ottawa in 1880 had pressed with energy and ability the claims of the Province upon the Dominion government they would have become convinced of the desirability of making arrangements to build the Island railway, and would have included it in the contract shortly afterwards made with the syndicate. If re-elected I assure you that you can rely upon my doing all that is possible to bring about the early construction of the Island railway.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

The members of the last legislature were united in the desire to take all possible steps to stop the influx of Chinese into the Province. Whatever appeared practicable in the way of legislation was attempted, and when it became certain that the powers enjoyed by the Australian colonies by the exercise of which Chinese immigration had been there checked, were not possessed by this Province, but were monopolized by the Dominion at confederation, repeated efforts were made to impress the Dominion government with the urgent need of similar legislation to prevent British Columbia being overrun by Chinamen.

One of the objects of Mr. Walkem's mission to Ottawa in January, 1880, was to stop Chinese immigration. Mr. Walkem had a conversation with Sir John A. Macdonald on the subject, but no practical solution of the labor difficulty in connection with the railway was suggested by him. As sufficient white men for railway work were not in the country it was evident that unless steps were taken to induce white immigration that the Chinese would come. The contractors could not reasonably be expected to bring immigrants; like all employers of labor they take what they can get. My opinion is that the government should have devised a scheme for white immigration in conjunction with the Dominion government, so as to have left no opening for Chinese companies to import as a commercial speculation nine thousand Chinamen into British Columbia. The most forcible representations possible by the Provincial government, legislature and Dominion members to the Dominion government are urgently necessary to induce legislation next session similar to that of the United States.

DEFECTIVE LEGISLATION.

The excessive number of defective Acts passed by the Legislature of British Columbia, as compared with that of any other province in the Dominion, has provoked unfavorable comment. Much slovenly legislation is to be attributed to the Government neglecting, session after session, to have their bills drawn and ready for the legislative when convened. This was a bad habit, as Acts of Parliament should not be hurriedly framed. They require careful preparation, especially those intended to meet the peculiar circumstances of the province, such, for instance, as those dealing with the Chinese. Fatal defects in two bills affecting the Chinese were pointed out to the Government by several members; but the majority unfortunately were misled into the temporary belief that the Attorney-General's knowledge of law was a better guide than their own unassisted judgments.

THE FINANCES.

Having been Chairman of the Finance Committee for three sessions I am tolerably well acquainted with the financial position of the province, and my opinion is that the finances of the province cannot fairly be said to be in a satisfactory condition. The excessive expenditure of former governments materially reduced the income of the Province applicable to works of utility. Monies that otherwise would have been available for roads, etc., have been required for Interest, Sinking Fund, and the redemption of Debentures.—Notwithstanding the large increase of provincial revenue from road tolls, poll tax, etc., consequent upon the Dominion railway work on the Mainland, it has been found chiefly sufficient to keep existing roads in passable repair. It was hoped that the last four years of forced reduction of expenditure on public works would have placed the finances of the province in such a position as to make possible from now on a much larger expenditure upon them.

Unfortunately dock mismanagement and extraordinary cement requirements threaten to add to provincial indebtedness a much larger sum than has been paid off in four years, the result being that the financial aspect of affairs at present is more discouraging than it ever was before.

A POLICY OF PROGRESS.

It is the misfortune of the Province that it is afflicted with a Government without a policy and entirely non-progressive. Here is a country as large as four Oregons and with resources greater and more varied almost at a standstil as regards development, notwithstanding railway construction. Whilst during the last ten years Oregon has added 85,000 to her population, and even little Washington Territory 50,000, the population of big British Columbia has remained almost stationary. The Government have kept the country in the background. People on the search for new homes knew nothing and could learn nothing about British Columbia. To-day a map of the province cannot be obtained here, in San Francisco or elsewhere "for love or money." We should not allow this state of darkness to continue. It is for you to see that your lands are thrown open to settlement, that information concerning them is disseminated by your government, so that a white population similar to that settling in the States and Territories adjoining you is attracted to your shores.

If elected I shall use all the influence I shall possess as your representative to promote the prosperity of British Columbia by encouraging immigration, the settlement of lands and the development of agricultural, manufacturing and mining interests.

jy9 WM. WILSON.

NANAIMO, July 10.

The nominations here came off to-day in the prescribed form. There were seven candidates nominated; but through the mistake of a gentleman who had his name down for three candidates, he had to withdraw one, so that there are now six bona fide candidates in the field, viz: R. Dunsmuir, E. Quennell, J. G. Barnston, Wm. Raybould, Wm. Hincksman and Thomas B. Humphreys, C. W. Horth's name having been withdrawn. The proceedings were of the most pleasant character, and every one seemed to thoroughly enjoy the little chaff which invariably takes place upon such occasions. It is generally supposed that Dunsmuir and Quennell will be returned.

VICTORIA DISTRICT.

R. F. John, G. A. McTavish, E. S. Farwell, T. B. Humphreys and J. L. McIlmoyl.

Mr. Humphreys Deserts Victoria District.

Despairing of election in Victoria district, and failing to receive the coveted nomination at Lillooet, Mr. Humphreys has decided to allow himself to be nominated for Nanaimo. He was so nominated yesterday. He has not the ghost of show in Victoria district. The people have tired of his oily gammon. He is all talk and no work. He has been found out, and is now preparing to desert the constituents whose interests he has neglected. Let Victoria electors remember this. The provincial secretary is a candidate for another district. He wants two strings to his bow. But he has lost the bow! Now what will he do with the strings?

YOUTHFUL THIEVES.—For some time past small amounts of coin have been missed from the telegraph office till. A day or two ago the little telegraph messenger boy disappeared, and yesterday it was ascertained that in company with another boy of his own age he had secured a false key and systematically robbed the office, taking in all about $100. It is thought that they climbed over the rear wall and entered the office after hours. This instance of youthful depravity on the part of two boys who have been well reared is very sad.

NOT ELIGIBLE.—Mr. Reginald Nuttall, ascertaining that he was ineligible, because his name is not yet on the voters' roll, withdrew as a candidate yesterday. His case is somewhat similar to that of Mr. McGirr, at Yale, with this difference: Mr. Nuttall may vote on the 24th and Mr. McGirr cannot. Yale people will please note this fact.

THE GENERAL DIRECTORY.—This morning Mr. Wolz goes to Nanaimo in connection with the business of the General Directory, and from there he will proceed to Comox and afterwards return by way of Cowichan, Salt Spring, etc.

THE LOCAL.

The Premier Faces His Constituents.

A large meeting of electors assembled last evening at Philharmonic Hall to hear the "last dying speech and confession" of Mr. Beaven, the premier of the makeshift government, prior to experiencing a violent political death on the 24th inst.

Mr. McKillican, government contractor, moved that Mr. Gowen take the chair, Carried.

Messrs. R. P. Rithet, Wm. Denny and Thos. Earle occupied seats on the platform.

The chairman invited candidates for the local and Dominion houses to take seats on the platform and all the candidates present responded.

Mr. Beaven, amid considerable applause, proceeded to address the audience, asking a fair and impartial hearing. He had issued an address, and one of the first topics he touched upon in that address was that of finance. He had said the financial condition of the province was better than it had been for years; that at the end of four years the government had reduced the public debt, had reduced taxation and had now a surplus on hand. At the date of confederation the province owed $1,200,000 and had about $500,000 assets. Every government since confederation, with the exception of the last Walkem government, had left a deficit, and he was surprised that the editor of The Colonist had doubted the correctness of a statement which the former finance minister had found it impossible to refute in the house. Mr. McCreight and Mr. DeCosmos both left deficits, and when the Walkem government came into power they decided to expend the sum of money on which the Province was receiving interest. That government expended $475,000 more than the revenue. It was a true policy. This was termed a deficit and the Walkem government were defeated when the house met by Mr. Elliott and his followers on this policy. But did the Elliott government retrench? No; they retired at the end of two years leaving a deficit of $750,000. That party will tell you that that deficit was expended in paying the debts of the Walkem government. In 1876 the Elliott government expended $160,000 and in 1877 $57,000 to pay for contracts let by the first Walkem government. When he took office in 1878 he found a heavy deficit staring him in the face and provincial bonds unpaid. Although the money had been obtained in England for the purpose, those bonds had not been taken up. That omission was discreditable to the province. Not only the public servants but contractors and tradesmen were owed about $300,000 and assets reduced that amount down to $240,000 or $250,000. He assured his hearers that as the revenue did not exceed $450,000 it was a difficult task to bring the finances into order. He had done it, however, and had now a surplus. (Applause.) He repeated that the deficit in the two years and a-half of the Elliott government was $700,000. It had been shown to the house that the Elliott government had an overdraft at the bank of $393,000 in 1876 and in 1877, $395,000. The late government could show a reduction in taxation and in the public debt and a surplus. They had abolished the system of taxing municipalities and had thus redeemed one of their pledges at the election, relieving the people of this city of at least $400,000 of taxes in four years. The government had reduced the public debt by $160,000, besides reducing taxation. The present government will not be embarrassed to that extent, and will have more money to expend on public works. The Opposition had charged that the late government had starved the public works; but he had shown that they had spent more money each year on public works than the Elliott government had done. He next claimed that the credit of the government had never stood higher and that no debentures had been sold by the late government at less than their face. The Elliott government sold $750,000 worth of bonds on the London market and only realized for them some $686,000. Bonds of the Province were now in demand in this Province at their face value, and bonds of 1877 were selling in London at 112 and 113, and on one occasion 130 was asked. He thought he had now fully established those portions of the address which he had been challenged to prove. (Applause.) Mr. Beaven next said that the statement of public accounts laid before the legislature in 1876 and 1877 were incorrect, and showed it was time there was a change of government. He had given the subject of immigration here of Chinese careful attention, and from the earliest period of his official career he had opposed the immigration of Chinese; but in 1875 government contractors set him at defiance and employed them in spite of him. All parties should unite in endeavoring to stop the Chinese evil. It was gratifying to him to know that every candidate for the Commons who spoke the other evening was in favor of restrictive measures. (Applause.) The remedy lay with the House of Commons. He himself had, as a matter of consistency, made it a point never to employ the Chinese or buy from them. Slavery was at the bottom of the Chinese labor system and at the top of it. (Cheers.) They were slaves here in British Columbia. He asked what was the future of the youth of this Province if every avenue was blocked up by Chinese? and called on them not to encourage a race who would take from their children the means of a livelihood. One of the candidates had said the only thing the Walkem government did was to pass an act which would not pass muster in the courts. That government had opened the eyes of the Dominion government to the enormity of the evil. He called on the people to move together in this matter and not ostracise a man because he employed a Chinaman, and get him to act with them. When the government imposed a heavy tax on the Chinese they struck to a man. He had heard one striking Chinaman say that if he did not strike work with the rest he would get a knife stuck into his back. He had introduced a resolution into the House to prevent the employment of Chinese on public works and now if a government contractor employed Chinamen he would not be paid. The tax on opium had been increased from $100 a year to $500. A committee was appointed to report on the Chinese question and they reported an address to the Dominion government of which no notice was taken. An extra toll was put upon rice, but the Dominion government disallowed the act. He had then tried to pass a bill similar to the Queensland Anti-Chinese Act and read from the Journals of the House to prove the statement. The government had used every effort to have a measure passed but had failed. Now, however, every candidate was in favor of restricting Chinese immigration. The local government had refused to permit the employment of Chinese on the drydock, and had also asked the Dominion government not to employ Chinese on the railway. In connection with railway matters—(a Voice: "Cofferdam!")—he endeavored to show the government had been active, and although they had not succeeded in getting the Island railway the Mainland line is already well advanced. When they took office one of the first things they saw was a dispatch cancelling the selection of Esquimalt as the terminus and substituting Port Moody. The government telegraphed to Ottawa requesting the government there not to remove the steel rails from Esquimalt. The Assembly was called together in August and the government passed a petition to the Queen asking to be allowed to withdraw from the Dominion. The Macdonald government soon came into power, and this government passed an order in Council demanding the commencement of railroad work in the province. The Macdonald government afterwards made Esquimalt the terminus of the railway, and it remains so to this day. Mr. Beaven continued at great length to review the action of the government and referred to the missions of Messrs. Walkem and DeCosmos, eulogizing the last named gentleman's ability, etc. Had the people of this Province thought ten years ago that the treaty of union would not be kept, they would not have parted with their tariff. (Applause.) The local legislature, finding that the Dominion government would not construct the Island railway this year, allowed two bills for the construction of that railway to be introduced. The private bills committee reported both bills favorably. The Clements Co. offered to give security that they would put up $250,000 as security. They put up $10,000, which was now forfeited to the government. (Applause.) They did not put up the $250,000 and the Act is now cancelled. He had been given the credit of having killed the Dunsmuir Bill, but he denied that. The Dunsmuir Bill did not propose to build the road this year and offered no security. All they asked was incorporation which they might get now. That bill asked for right to acquire any subsidy which the government might be entitled to from the Dominion Government; and if the house had passed the bill they would have given Mr. Dunsmuir power to collect any sum that might be due as compensation. (Applause.) He did not kill the bill. He introduced an amendment that the bill should not become law until it had been ratified by the next parliament. He contended that that amendment did not kill the bill. He would not detain them longer to-night and thanked them heartily for the kindness, sympathy and support they had shown him on all occasions. (Cheers.)

Mr. Duck was here called for but suggested an adjournment as the hour was late.

The meeting then adjourned with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

Mr. Drake said there would be another meeting on Wednesday evening when he hoped all the candidates would be present. (Cheers.)

Marine.

Ship Jeremiah Thompson, lumber laden from Tacoma, and ship Syren, laden with spars for Maine, are at Port Townsend ready for sea.

Steamship Mastick went up yesterday to take the mails through to Sitka, from the steamer Evangel, at Nanaimo.

U. S. marshals at San Francisco took possession of the British ocean tramp Anjer Head on a libel of $4,020 against her, the captain having refused to give bonds. The captain declared his vessel could not be seized, but his knowledge of American laws was evidently not accurate, as the vessel was at once seized.

The schooner Adrianna arrived from Chuumagin Islands, and reports that up to June 12th nothing had been seen or heard of the schooner General Miller, which sailed hence for the islands March 30th. It is feared she has been lost. She was in command of Captain Moore, and manned with a crew of 10 men.

The N. P. R. R. and Seattle.

The Post-Intelligencer of Saturday published the following correspondence:

SEATTLE, July 7.

HENRY VILLARD,
20 Nassau street, New York:

Our citizens have to-day completed the right of way on the city front by the payment of $26,000, with the hope and belief that we would be speedily connected with the main line. May I tell them their expectations will be realized?

A. A. DENNY.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the following reply flashed across the wires:

NEW YORK, July 8.

A. A. DENNY, Seattle:

Your dispatch received. Glad that the right of way question is definitely settled. The promise that I made to your citizens that their town would be connected with the main line of Northern Pacific, will be strictly fulfilled. H. VILLARD.

FROM YALE.—The R. P. Rithet arrived yesterday morning from Yale having accomplished the round trip in 43 hours. The distance between Hope and New Westminster was made in four hours on Sunday evening. She brought down 33 head of cattle for Victoria butchers. Canneries are all busy, fish being plentiful.

PENMANSHIP.—Professor J. P. Feaster will open a school of penmanship and book-keeping at Broughton street schoolhouse on Wednesday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock. *

What Some People Say.

That a correspondent writes to say that Mr. Beaven "employs two Chinese and not one white man."

That a Seattle paper in speaking of Mr. James Fell says he "weighs nearly 400 pounds."

That Conkling says of Arthur—"He is the prize ox of politics. All he wants is a blue ribbon around his ear to complete his character. Look at his fat, smooth face, his figure, his fancy combed hair and his perfect growing."

That the Pacific Mail Steamship Company have ordered their agents to increase the rate for freight from 25 to 33 per cent., in consequence of the proposed closing of the Suez Canal.

That Seattle elected her town officers yesterday.

That a party of explorers have left Port Townsend to explore the coast range south of Cape Flattery for a pass through the mountains.

That David Mills, reformer, was defeated in Bothwell by J. F. Hawkins, conservative, by a majority of fourteen votes.

That a man may be opposed to Chinese immigration and still be forced to employ Chinamen, whose presence drives away every other description of skilled labor.

That Edmund Latour, whose brother advertises through The Colonist for his whereabouts, is at Harrisburg, Takou. He was in Victoria six months ago, when he was seen by officer Shepherd.

That the time for receiving tenders for Nanaimo public building has been extended to 22d inst.

That one of the candidates for the commons and one of the candidates for the local, both anti-Chinese, lunched together yesterday at a restaurant where the meals are prepared by a Chinese cook. Oh! Consistency, thou art a jewel.

That the government cause is waning in the adjacent districts.

That the return of Armstrong, opposition-ist, for New Westminster city, is a "facer" for the government.

That "who the devil is Pooley?" asked one of the Esquimalt government candidates on Saturday, as he entered a roadside inn. "Who the devil is Pooley? He left England when he was fifteen years of age. What can he know of political economy? I was twenty-one when I left home. Therefore I'm the man for 'Squimalt."

That by this style of argument the government hope to defeat the opposition candidates. Is it not ridiculous?

That the premier has sent to California for a powerful galvanic battery. He wants to galvanize the corpse of the government party.

That a new cannery will shortly be established at Smith's Inlet.

That the report of the autopsy of Guiteau's brain is so enveloped in long words that we give up the conundrum whether he was sane or insane as unanswerable.

That only $13,710 in treasure was shipped yesterday.

That one of the Dominion candidates went to sleep on the platform last evening and snored—actually snored!—while the premier's speech was being ground out. We would suggest that when the honorable member expectant has any more "pigs to drive to market" he should reserve them for the Ottawa Commons Chamber.

Meeting at the Schoolhouse, West Road.

The meeting having been called to order with Mr. Slugget as chairman, the time limit was discussed. It was decided to allow each speaker his own time.

Mr. Bryant moved that none but the candidates and the voters of Saanich district should be allowed to speak. Carried.

It having been decided almost unanimously that the old members should speak first, Mr. Humphreys proceeded to address the meeting. He spoke about one hour and a half, touching principally upon the railway, dry dock and school system.

Mr. McIlmoyle followed in the same strain, endorsing all that Mr. Humphreys had stated.

Mr. McTavish was then called on amidst much applause. He stated his views on the different topics in a concise and lucid manner. He resumed his seat, evidently having won the goodwill of the meeting.

Mr. John then followed in a short but telling speech, especially relating to his determination if elected to get more money for the roads in the district. (Cheers.)

Mr. Farwell walked to the platform and was well received. He said, "I am dead opposed to the present government. In speaking of the drydock he characterised it as a disgraceful muddle, which spoke little for the business ability of the late government. He said he was in favor of paying all just indebtedness of the government, but was strictly opposed to illegitimate or bogus claims. After some other remarks touching the school system, Chinamen, etc., he resumed his seat.

Everything passed off in a very orderly manner with the exception of a few interruptions.

THE WAGON ROAD.—At last advices only three or four men were at work on the trunk road between Yale and Cook's Ferry. Others went up to get work but they found no one to set them on and not being able to get grub were obliged to return to the lower country. The water has been down sufficiently for several days, yet nothing is being done. Forwarding to the upper country is still suspended, and apparently the government are not the least concerned about such a lamentable state of affairs.

THE GORDEN HEAD FIRE.—For several days the fire which had been burning in this locality was believed to have been entirely extinguished; but yesterday it broke out afresh in the woods and a large quantity of cordwood belonging to different parties was consumed. It was raging last evening and sending up great volumes of smoke.

FROM WRANGEL.—Steamer Grappler got in from Wrangel and way ports on Sunday evening. She brought 2500 cases salmon from the Windsor cannery and a large consignment of oolachans salted and smoked, besides a few bales of furs from Wrangel. All the canneries are busy.

MEETING AT CEDAR HILL.—Mr. Irving occupied the chair. Between 40 and 50 settlers attended. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. McIlmoyle, McTavish, John Farwell and Humphreys. The report will appear to-morrow.

THE GENERAL DIRECTORY.—Canvassing work on the new Provincial Directory is nearly completed, and after Mr. Wm. Wolz, the general agent, returns from the East Coast compiling will commence; shortly after that the new work will make its appearance. *

Two Acts from a Local Play Called Past and Present.

ACT I.

Time—June, 1880. Location—Government street, Yates to Bastion street, west side. About 12, noon. Dramatis personæ: Amor DeCosmos, standing in front of Bank of British Columbia; two men from foundry, pretty black.

1st Workman—Say, Bill, hang me if that ain't DeCosmos. When did he come back? I wonder what he has new to tell us?

2d Workman—New to tell you? Do you suppose he will speak to you?

1st W.—Yes; certainly he will.

2d W.—I'll bet you the cigars he won't.

1st W.—Done! Why, Bill, you've lost already. I got him a dozen votes last election.

2d W.—Don't care. You'll see in a minute or two.

[Passes the Postoffice and arrives abreast of Standard office. Mr. DeCosmos sees them. Raises his hand and strokes his well-oiled locks, sleeveholes his thumbs, turns on his heel, sniffing like a war horse at the sound of battle, and marches off down Bastion street, muttering something like: "Common fellows! scum! etc.]

1st W.—Well, I'm hanged! Did you notice that gall dong fop raise his nose and git? I'll be even with him yet, you bet. Come on, and we'll have the cigars after lunch.

ACT II.

Time—June, 1882. Same time of day and location; also personages.

1st Workman—I hear the steamer arrived this morning, and Mr. DeCosmos was among the "distinguished" passengers on board.

2d Workman—Yes; so I heard, and, by gracious! there is the very man we were talking about. By the bye, do you recollect two years ago we saw him standing in about the same place, and I won the cigars? How'll you bet to-day?

1st W.—Hold your whist! There's no time for bets, for he has spotted us and is making a bee line for us. "Mum's" the word.

[They meet. Mr. DeC. proffers his hand, and it is very reluctantly taken.]

Mr. DeCosmos—Well, gentlemen, how do you do? I am happy to see you looking so well. How's business?

Both—We are well, thank you. You appear the same.

Mr. DeC.—I am, gentlemen; I am—(Pauses, runs his fingers through his locks.) Of course, gentlemen, I can call on you both for a renewal of your votes in my favor, and your influence also, because I know you are two of the right stock, and know when you are well served, and won't go back on an old and well tried representative.

1st W.—DeCosmos, you are right. We are of the right stock, and do know when we are well served; and what is more, would never go back on a representative. But have you the cheek to call yourself a representative? I think misrepresentative far nearer the word. No, sir. My vote, with my influence (if I have any), will be to vote you time to interest yourself in the purging and cleansing that slanderous sheet yclept the Standard for the better protection of the morals of the few who lose their time and morality by reading it.

2d W.—And another thing, old man (hold on; don't go away mad). Some two years ago, at the same time and place, we were coming as now from work. You were standing right here. We came close to you and were about to address you; you seeing that turned on your heel and walked off. You were not electioneering then. You were a gall dong too great an "I am" to speak to a workman then. You forgot that I lost time and money in aiding you to defeat good old J. F. Davies—a better and truer man than ever you were or will be. You were only saved then by the skin of your teeth; and now you want the same favor. Go home and "flog the cat" over the lost chances you threw away (ministerial positions, governorships, etc., you boasted were offered you), for no more will your shining light be made a butt of on the streets and promenades of Ottawa at our expense, if our votes and influence can keep you here.

[DeCosmos walks off looking daggers and muttering "Pooh, pooh!"]

Both—Good bye, old horse. If you "die" under defeat we'll give you a good send-off—to where your abilities have fitted you wondrously well to belong.

[Exeunt omnes.]

Employment of Chinese.

The assault of Mr. C. F. Beaven on the editor of The Colonist at the Anti-Chinese Association meeting on Saturday evening was ridiculous. Mr. Higgins employs 27 white hands and only one Chinaman—the latter at his house, while Mr. Beaven, if we are not mistaken, employs two Chinamen and no white men. To our personal knowledge no Chinese have been employed in The Colonist office for the past ten years, and at this very time Mr. Higgins is employing nine white boys, and pays them double the wages that Chinese boys—of whom there are 60 in town—could be hired for, and who could do the work equally well.—Post.

The above does us but scanty justice. No Chinese have ever been employed in The Colonist office, and every housekeeper is aware how difficult it is to obtain white help even when the highest rates of wages are offered. The Chinese degrade labor. White girls will not enter into competition with them as household servants. If there were no Chinese there would be plenty of white help to be had. Therefore we are opposed to Chinese immigration.

Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

MONDAY, July 10.

LARCENY.

Thomas Hampton was charged with stealing $6.25 from a man named Veich, on Menzie street, James Bay.

The complainant swore to the information that the money had been taken from his pocket while he was in a fit. The case was remanded for hearing at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

ASSAULT.

A pressman from The Colonist office was charged with assaulting one of the feeders. Several witnesses were called, and in the result the pressman was fined $5, each party to pay his own costs.

FAT CATTLE.—The R. P. Rithet, which arrived in port yesterday morning from Yale, brought 111 fat cattle from Hope, some of which were consigned to New Westminster and other places on the route, quite a number being brought to this city.

GOING ON THE WAYS.—The steamer Grappler will be put on Cook's ways today as soon as she has discharged her northern freight.

BOYS WANTED.—See Stahlschmidt & Ward's advertisement.

Yale Grand Jury Report.

At the assizes held at Yale last week, the Grand Jury made a very sensible Report. Reference was made to the fact that the town is not incorporated. The sanitary condition of the place was dealt with, also the state of the public institutions, which was creditable to those in charge. The necessity for abating certain nuisances, such as ill-kept pig-pens, the obstructing of public side-walks by, placing chairs thereon, &c., was pointed out. Becoming sympathy was expressed for the sufferers by the late disastrous floods; the urgent necessity for the immediate repairs of the wagon road was referred to, and fitting acknowledgment was made of the Dominion appropriation for the "much-needed work" of clearing the channel of the Lower Fraser.

REPLYING,

His Lordship dwelt at considerable length and with much clearness and force upon a number of important topics touched and untouched in the Report. He pointed out the steps to be taken to obtain incorporation and the benefits accuring therefrom. He particularly referred to the appeals from the Licensing Court, pointing out that liquor licenses were, or ought only to be, issued for public convenience, not for individual aggrandizement, and that a license imposed responsibilities as well as carried privileges. He referred to the discretionary powers conferred upon the Magistrates in granting or withholding liquor licenses, a power with which he would be very sorry to interfere, and he evinced a very decided disposition to uphold their decisions. His Lordship also explained the working of the Public Works Act, provisions of which had recently been put in force along the line of railway, pointing out its object and effect, more particularly in respect to the liquor trade.—Columbian.

The army will land at Abouker and be divided into two parts; one will march on Alexandria and be supported by a fleet, which will open fire as soon as the artillery is landed. The other portion will cross the dry land of Abouker to Kafr Devas and seize the railway at Dullahora, Arabi Pasha's only means of retreat, and will then force him to either fight or surrender.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.—The Sultan has rejected the proposal of the council of Ministers to appoint a delegate to the conference.

The Sultan in conversation complained of the want of friendship shown him by England in the unjust suspicion and erroneous interpretations placed on his actions. He also complained of the injustice of the foreign representatives at Alexandria, who, to justify their causing the departure of their countrymen, made unfounded statements respecting their security in Egypt. The Sultan again invited Gen. Wallace, U. S. Minister, to his palace and conferred with him a long time. The Sultan has approved the contract for 200 Burdan torpedoes.

Oregon and Idaho.

PORTLAND, July 8.

On the evening of the Fourth of July a drunk came to the city jail and began talking to Capt. Luther, then on watch. He was very much under the influence of liquor, and made a brag that he had killed a Chinaman in Chico. Luther immediatly locked him up on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. The prisoner gave the name of J. L. Keifer. In the morning, when sober, he denied that his name was Keifer, and gave that of Reynolds instead. Chief of Police Lappeus next morning telegraphed to Chico to ascertain whether such a person as Keifer was wanted for murder, and received an affirmative answer; also that $500 reward was offered for his arrest. Lappeus telegraphed his description and was told to hold him. Tonight, officer Randall, of Chico, arrived here by the overland route and identified Keifer as the murderer of a Chinaman in 1879.

This evening Henry Bacon and Hickory Johnston, two notorious toughs, went to one of the park blocks at B street, to settle a dispute with a fist fight in the presence of a crowd of fifty or more. Johnston came out second best, when his friends cried, "Cut him!" whereupon Johnston whipped out a dirk and made a slash, cutting a gash in his opponent's abdomen seven inches long, but not very deep. Bacon bled profusely, but the wound is not considered dangerous. Johnston attempted to escape, and ran several blocks, but was captured and locked up.

A passenger tonight brings an account of a killing at Moscow, Idaho, on the 4th inst. Frank Hill, a noted desperado, had a quarrel with Warren Dougherty, clerk in the store of W. J. McConnell, a few weeks ago, and gave Dougherty a severe beating. On the morning of the 4th, Hill mounted a horse, rode to the residence of Dougherty, and dismounted. Dougherty saw him and called to him to halt. Hill made a rush for Dougherty, who fired a ball, taking effect in Hill's side. The wounded man remounted his horse, rode back to the saloon, where he fell dead from the horse's back. Hill had been the terror of the whole neighborhood.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA CITY.

GENTLEMEN:—IN OFFERING MYSELF AS A candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election for the local house I must state that I can subscribe to few of the acts of the Walkem-Beaven administration. Their policy has been fraught with disaster to the province and would soon have led it to destruction.

Elected upon the solemn assurance that they would use every effort available to stop the influx of Chinese, they violated their pledge by contenting themselves with passing a hasty and illconsidered restrictive act which only required to be seen in a court of law to be upset; and, to mark their insincerity in the matter, when the Chinamen brought the government into court to defend the act no endeavour was made to support it. Since then no attempt whatever has been made by the government to check the growing evil and not so much as a representation on the subject has been made at Ottawa, notwithstanding that a friendly government has been in power ready to promptly further the wishes of the Province in this respect. I consider that under the "British North America Act, 1867," which concedes to the Province the exclusive right to deal with property, civil rights, direct taxation, and matters of local import, the local legislature has power to legislate upon this all-important topic and if elected I shall advocate a well-digested measure aimed at the repression of Chinese immigration; and shall at the same time move to bring the subject prominently before the Dominion government so that concurrent action may be taken by the two governments.

The local government have seriously jeopardised the island railway. By concluding their negotiations with the Imperial and Dominion governments concerning the drydock without ascertaining the cost of the work it now appears that they have involved the Province in an indefinite liability ranging ftom $250,000 to $500,000 (perhaps more) regarding an enterprise which it was proudly boasted would not cost the Province one dollar. By their system of false economy in refusing to augment the civil staff and to render the gaols in remote districts secure they have caused the loss of some valuable lives—notably, Ussher and Kelly at Kamloops and Jenkinson at Cassiar—to say nothing of the squandering of thousands of dollars in abortive trials of the culprits and fruitless assizes. Oppressive tax sales have been proceeded with notwithstanding the assurance of the Minister of Justice that the attempt to collect penalties and usurious rates of interest was illegal. The name and credit of the Province have been disgraced by the action of the government in dishonoring their own vouchers and by the almost universal bad faith exhibited towards those with whom they have had monetary dealings.

Such patronage as the government has at command should be evenly distributed, in place of which nearly the whole of the government work has been given to a favored few. Assizes have been held to suit the political exigencies of ministers, hence prisoners have been kept awaiting trial sometimes six, sometimes twelve months, and life has been rendered insecure by making coroner's inquests, in cases of death which are unaccounted for, the exception instead of the rule.

If elected I shall use my best endeavors to promote assisted immigration and to disseminate information regarding the province in the shape of maps, hand books and so forth. I shall to the best of my ability independently support any government when acting in the interests of the country and will oppose them when doing otherwise.

THEODORE DAVIE.
